

Freedom of opinion and beliefs is what our country is founded on! Allowing Mega conglomerates to own such a big piece of this pie, would lead to very narrow-minded interpretations of local and national news. Mr. Bush insisted on bullying an entire country for his idea of freedom, based on that countries history of a tyrannical leader. How dare we presume to be better than Mr. Hussein, if the possibility of extreme censure for the American public is in order?
PREPOSTEROUS!